Watering the Seed By Giriraj Swami

In Watering the Seed, Giriraj Swami shares his personal spiritual realizations with honesty, humility, and wisdom. He recounts how Lord Krishna's beloved gardener, Giriraj Swami's spiritual teacher A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada, took such great care to water the seed of devotion within Giriraj Swami's heart. His words transport the reader into Srila Prabhupada's association during some of the most historic moments of ISKCON's development and grant entrance into Prabhupada's private quarters to witness his gentle fatherly love toward his young and sometimes perplexed spiritual child. Prabhupada's compassion for the conditioned souls overcomes all opposition with unrelenting determination and faith. You will be enchanted by his innocent, childlike humor and enlightened by his philosophical perspectives both in times of crisis and in everyday life.

Review

Watering the Seed is an invaluable offering to all aspirants on the path of devotion. It recounts many wonderful personal exchanges between Srila Prabhupada and his dear disciple Giriraj Swami, who kindly shares his realizations with the honesty, wisdom, and humility for which he is known and loved. He recounts how Lord Krishna's beloved gardener took personal care to water the seed of devotion within his heart.

I pray that all who read Watering the Seed may be blessed with ever-increasing appreciation for Prabhupada's monumental contributions.

--Radhanath Swami, author of The Journey Home

In Watering the Seed you will get the association of Giriraj Swami. Soft heart and good brain--wonderful combination. That is why Srila Prabhupada liked him so much.

--Tamal Krishna Goswami, author of A Living Theology of Krishna Bhakti

From the Inside Flap

Watering the Seed is an invaluable offering to all aspirants on the path of devotion. Inside you will find many wonderful personal exchanges between Srila Prabhupada and his dear disciple Giriraj Swami, who shares his realizations with the honesty, wisdom, and humility for which he is known and loved. He recounts how Lord Krishna's beloved gardener, Srila Prabhupada, took such great care to water the seed of devotion within his heart.

You will be transported into Srila Prabhupada's intimate association during some of the most historic moments of ISKCON's development. You will be given entrance into his private quarters to witness his gentle fatherly love toward his young and sometimes perplexed spiritual child. Srila Prabhupada's innocent childlike humor will bring joy to your heart. You will see how he, in his compassion for the conditioned souls, overcomes all opposition with unrelenting determination and faith. You will hear Srila Prabhupada's spontaneous philosophical perspectives both in times of crisis and in everyday life.

In 1965 His Divine Grace A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada embarked upon a mission that would fulfill an ancient, long-awaited prophecy. His spirit of selfless compassion will be imprinted forever upon the pages of religious history. Those illustrious souls who stepped forward to sacrifice their lives to help Srila Prabhupada became the dearest recipients of his priceless blessings. His Holiness Giriraj Swami is one such shining jewel in the necklace of Srila Prabhupada's beloved followers.

I pray that all who read Watering the Seed may be blessed with ever-increasing appreciation for Srila Prabhupada's monumental contribution to our lives.

--Radhanath Swami

About the Author

Giriraj Swami was born Glenn Phillip Teton, the only son of a respected Chicago lawyer who was later appointed judge. While studying at Brandeis University in Boston, he met His Divine Grace A. C.

Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada, founder-acarya of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness, from whom, he felt, he learned more in one brief exchange than he had learned in his many years of academic education. After graduating from Brandeis cum laude, Glenn took formal initiation from Srila Prabhupada and was given the spiritual name Giriraj Das. Giriraj quickly became a leading member of the Boston center. He was then given the opportunity to go to India with Srila Prabhupada and helped establish his mission there.

In 1972 Giriraj was appointed by Prabhupada to be president of ISKCON Bombay and trustee of the Bhaktivedanta Book Trust. Since then, he has made many significant contributions to Srila Prabhupada's mission, most notably overseeing all aspects of the development of Hare Krishna Land in Juhu, Bombay. He has directed the society's activities Bombay, Mauritius, South Africa, Spain, Portugal, Sri Lanka, and Pakistan, was instrumental in the development of the Bhaktivedanta Ashram in Govardhan, and led the development of the Kirtan Ashram for women, the Bhaktivedanta Hospice, and the Vrindavan Institute of Palliative Care, all in Vrindavan, India.

In the year following Srila Prabhupada's departure in 1977, Giriraj was awarded the renounced order of life and appointed president of ISKCON's board of trustees in India. He is an initiating guru in the society and an emeritus member of its Governing Body Commission.

He has taught at the Vaishnava Institute for Higher Education in Vrindavan and lectures and gives presentations at retreats and workshops throughout the world.
