Note: this is a Print-On-Demand edition. The original, high quality edition published by Piccadilly Press is now out of print. In this edition the paper is a little less thick. Hamish Bear lived in a teddy bear shop. It looked like a normal shop, with all the teddies arranged in rows on the shelves. But really it was a magical shop. When it closed at night, Hamish and his friends went through a secret door into their very own house - the House of Teddies. Although all the bears knew there was one special child for each teddy, Hamish didn't want a special child. He liked to do his own thing, and he especially liked to ride his scooter. But one day...
