Layne Staley: Get Born Again By Adriana Rubio

“Layne Staley: Get Born Again” is a revival of the acclaimed “Angry Chair” book. It has been revised and updated with the inclusion of two new chapters. The covers, front and back, are new. More pictures and artworks have been added to this title in which the Author transcribed, in full version, Layne Staley’s last interview revealing the harsh truth behind heroin addiction, the reality of his family and his feelings about it. It is also revealed why the singer’s mother withdrew support to the “Angry Chair” book back in January 2003. Layne Staley died in April 2002. He was once on top of the music world as the lead singer for “Alice in Chains” & “Mad Season”. “Layne Staley: Get Born Again” is filled with exclusive interviews to his mother, Nancy, his sister, Liz and Layne himself...as he broke his five-year public silence just months before his death. The book counts with pictures from Layne’s childhood, drawings, poetry and a lot more! A Must Read...!

"Layne Staley: Get Born Again" is filled with exclusive interviews to his mother, Nancy, his sister, Liz and Layne himself...as he broke his five-year public silence just months before his death. The book counts with pictures from Layne's childhood, drawings, poetry and a lot more! A Must Read...!

From the Author

I wrote this book from my heart and was done the way Layne asked me to do it: "Put your feet into my damn shoes, you writer. Have you wondered how I feel ? I hate to feel" (Layne Staley-February 3rd, 2002, at 3am Argentina time) I'm very thankful to Layne Staley for his words and music. And, although I disagree in many aspects with his mother, Nancy McCallum, I'm thankful for all the interviews we had in Alaska. The same goes for Layne's sister Liz Elmer and the interviews done in Seattle back in 2001. I will never forget that phone call...R.I.P LAYNE.
