The Dream Voyagers: Three-In-One By T. Davis Bunn

A Heart Song Goes Out Through the Darkness

A lovely young woman thrust beyond the reaches of her own world.
A brave young man searching for something he cannot explain.
Together they travel the pirated routes
of a frozen and menacing land,
separated by space and time,
united in the call of their hearts.
One is taken captive and held hostage
in a bleak and ominous world.
The other lives in a land of star-studded skies
encircled by the brilliance of light.
Separated by endless night and sinister powers,
their love grows with each stirring of the heart.
Danger lurks in the shadowlanes, seeking to destroy.
Yet out of the darkness comes yearning, hope, and triumph!
"Written with amazing foresight and ingenuity... great entertainment reading. Highly recommended for those who like science fiction and outer space."

About the Author

A native North Carolinian who now lives abroad, T. Davis Bunn was recognized internationally as a consultant, lecturer, and speaker in the area of international finance and received invitations to address symposiums, conferences, and management meetings. His professional interests took a decided turn nearly eighteen years ago. Although he continued his career in international finance, he became a "closet" novelist. For nine years, he wrote with discipline and drive, never to have anything published. When one of his novels came to the attention of Bethany House Publishers, his status as an unpublished novelist changed. His first book, The Presence, was published in 1990 and quickly became a bestseller.

A prolific writer, he now has over twenty books in publication, including three with Janette Oke, a wonderful children's picture book called Princess Bella and the Red Velvet Hat, the heartwarming gift book The Quilt, and his latest, The Dream Voyagers, originally published under the pen name Thomas Locke.

"The novels I've had published by Bethany House are the direction I hope my future writing will take--captivating stories of intrigue, drama and faith, with compelling characters in an enjoyable contemporary fictional setting," says Bunn. "The emotional bonding that occurs with the reader in good fiction often gives the Christian message more direct meaning in the reader's life."

Prior to his work in international finance, Davis completed studies in psychology and economics at Wake Forest University. Fluent in three languages, he has traveled extensively in more than forty countries in Europe, Africa, Asia, and the Middle East. Davis has also avocationally become a serious student of comparative religion, learning from Jewish rabbis, Buddhist monks, Muslim imams, Catholic priests, and Baptist ministers. Drawing on these experiences, Davis fills his books with colorful dialogue and richly textured settings.
