Trapped By This Thing Called Love: 2 By Niya Holland

Seven years passed since Kara's unexpected disappearance and Khalif is now a local store owner and single father to their son Kida.

Even though he's still tied to the game, Khalif's primary focus is his legitimate business, his family, and his lady. Then Kara reemerges, determined to convince him that she's no longer out for revenge.

She wants to be a positive aspect in their son's life. But their love affair ensues, and things are not all they seem to be.

Khalif is still trapped by his past, and as a result, he may lose a grip on everything he treasures; including his son.
